Officials Buried Beneath Landslide of Un-tulated Returns

TOTALS $2,862,800,000

Voice of Small Investor Dominant Note in Country's Answer To Call

THOUSANDS TOO LATE

WASHINGTON, June 15.—The American people have responded to the government's call for funds to finance the war with an oversubscription to the $2,000,000,000 Liberty loan of proportions so huge that officials are buried beneath a landslide of untulated returns.

Apparently beyond hopes. No man could say at ten o'clock tonight how great had been the nation's answer. Apparently it was overwhelmingly beyond the most sanguine hopes of treasury officials, the not one of the 12 federal reserve banks, regional headquarters of the loan, could hazard more than an estimate of its total.

In the country's ringing answer to the call, the dominant note was the voice of the small investor. It appeared tonight that all previous estimates had gone by the boards and that near 3,000,000 men and women had bought their bonds.

Reserve District Estimates. Estimates from the 12 reserve districts indicated that the subscriptions might reach the total of $2,862,800,000. These estimates, which were not vouched for as authoritative at the treasury department, were as follows:

New York ..... $1,200,000,000
Boston ..... 263,300,000
Philadelphia ..... 200,000,000
Cleveland ..... 284,000,000
Richmond, more than 100,000,000
Atlanta ..... 50,000,000
Chicago ..... 325,000,000
St. Louis ..... 81,000,000
Kansas City ..... 90,000,000
Minneapolis ..... 62,000,000
Dallas ..... 47,000,000
San Francisco ..... 150,000,000

On the face of these estimates it appeared unlikely that the total would fall below $2,600,000,000. It also appeared that three reserve districts, Atlanta, Kansas City and Minneapolis would fall below their minimum allotment.

Secretary McAdoo announced the oversubscription shortly after the closing of the books in the east.

Impossible to Give Amount. "The Liberty loan has been oversubscribed," he said. "It is impossible to state the amount of the oversubscription but the exact figures will be given out as rapidly as the returns are received at the treasury department."

Secretary McAdoo tonight telegraphed all reserve banks "will you convey to the Liberty loan committees of your district, to the banks and to all other organizations which have co-operated with you in this great Liberty loan enterprise the assurance of my warm appreciation as well as my cordial thanks."

"Will you not also urge these committees to preserve their organizations in order that they may be prepared to render signal service of like character to their government when it is called upon again to seek an additional credit?"

Mr. McAdoo said he did not think there would be another offering before fall.

Thousands Too Late. Thousands of subscriptions came too late to the federal reserve banks. These will be tabulated and the total forwarded to Washington. Just what disposition will be made of them have yet to be determined. It is possible that where it can be shown that their failure to reach the reserve bank in time was due to no fault of the subscriber or the forwarding bank some of them may be accepted. Every agency working for the loan brought in a host of subscribers. The great employers of labor reported subscriptions by the tens of thousands. The boy scouts enlisted nearly 100,000 persons with a total aggregating 9,735,800. The woman's committee brought tens of thousands to the banks. All branches of the government responded.

Army Subscriptions Not Tabulated. What the army took was not tabulated tonight, but the total is estimated to be higher than expectations with many thousands of subscribers. A partial listing of the subscriptions turned in by the navy department and the naval establishment showed 12,960 subscribers with a total subscription of nearly $2,000,000. More than two and one half times as many persons answered the call of the Liberty loan as responded to Germany's first war loan of 4,460,000,000 marks, approximately $1,061,490,000. The first German loan was floated in September, 1914, when victory seemed certain. The sub-

TO CITE ROADS ENTERING CHICAGO FOR CONTEMPT

Announcement is Made at State
Attorney General's Office

Suits Under Illinois Statutes Will be Instituted in Various Counties,
Where Railroads Have Raised
Their Passenger Rates.

Springfield, Ill., June 15.—Railroads entering Chicago which raised their passenger rates in violation of an injunction in the superior court against such an increase will be cited for contempt of court Monday, it was announced here today on the return from Washington of Assistant Attorney General Wilkerson and Buckingham. At the same time suits under the Illinois statutes will be instituted in the various counties where railroads have raised passenger rates above the legal rate of two cents a mile, it was said.

Action of this nature on the part of the attorney general of Illinois is made necessary, it was declared, because of the failure of the interstate commerce commission to vacate an order permitting Illinois roads to put into effect a 2.4 cents rate before the question at issue has been decided by the United States supreme court where arguments will be heard in October on an appeal from the federal court in Cook county.

The order of the interstate commerce commission was for the purpose of removing alleged discrimination against St. Louis in favor of East St. Louis. Attorney General Brundage and Governor Lowden have contended that the national commission had no right to adjust intra-state rates.

Before leaving Washington, the Illinois attorney general served what amounted to an ultimatum that failure of the commission to suspend the rate increase order would mean litigation in this state.

The federal court in St. Louis has already ordered the Illinois roads to remove an alleged discrimination against St. Louis, and has warned Illinois officials that they will be cited for contempt of court if they interfere with the roads in making the increase.

REPORTS CONDITIONS AT STATION GOOD

Admiral Benson Makes Personal
Inspection of Great Lakes Training Station at Chicago.

Washington, June 15.—Admiral Benson, chief of naval operations, after a personal inspection of the Great Lakes training station at Chicago, has reported to Secretary Daniels that conditions are very good and the morale excellent. Complaints had been made that the men were badly cared for.

Due to a large and rapid increase in the number of recruits many cases of sickness have been reported but energetic measures have reduced the number materially and investigation by Admiral Benson convinced him that there is now no just cause of complaint.

"I have never seen a healthier and a finer lot of young men," said the admiral. Admiral Benson visited the training station, saw almost every man the camps and buildings, inspected the housing and cooking arrangements and talked with the men as to general conditions, their food and treatment. He reported he was assured by the men that the food was good and the treatment considered.

Admiral Benson said that while there were unsatisfactory features, there was every evidence of earnest effort on the part of all officers at the station to improve conditions and that when it was taken into consideration that there has been an increase of men from 1200 or 1400 to 8,400 in a short time he considered the improvement made as very good.

TO INVITE PERSHING TO PUBLIC RECEPTION

PARIS, June 15.—The French academy has resolved that its officers shall wait on General Pershing with a greeting from the academy and invite him to attend a public reception on June 28. The American general and his staff were the guests of Marshal Joffre at lunch today at the military club.

While the American general is being loaded with honors in Paris, his subordinates are already at work. A delegation of American officers, accompanied by a French staff officer, has begun a tour of the principal railroad centers, with the object of familiarizing themselves with the French transport organization. They will investigate both the principal railroad systems and the special supply lines at the front. The delegation spent yesterday at Troyes and then went to Bryenne-le Chateau.

TO RELEASE IRISH PRISONERS

London, June 15.—It was announced in the house of commons this afternoon that the government had decided to release all the prisoners taken in the Irish rebellion of Easter Sunday a year ago. In making the announcement Andrew Bonar Law, government spokesman in the house of commons, said that all the Irish prisoners would be released without reservation.

WILSON SIGNS BILL

Washington, June 15.—President Wilson today signed the three billion dollar war budget which carries appropriations for the new army and other war preparations. It is the largest single appropriation measure ever enacted by any government.

"SMITH" STARTS SERVING A TERM AT PONTIAC

CHICAGO, June 15.—John C. Smith will start serving a term of from one to fourteen years in the reformatory at Pontiac, Ill., today, for committing, according to his confession, from "one to two burglaries." "Smith" refused to reveal his right name as he did not wish to bring sorrow and disgrace to his family. His father and sister, unknown to the court, were present at the trial yesterday, but their identity was not revealed. "Smith's" burglaries are said to have totalled in the neighborhood of $30,000. He is a graduate of a Chicago high school and attended the state university at Urbana.

SENATE TO EXPEDITE FOOD CONTROL BILL

President Prevails Upon Leaders To Bring Bill Up

Senate Leaders Consider Displacing
Pending Priority Shipments Bill or Adding the Latter Bill as an Amendment

Washington, June 15.—President Wilson prevailed upon senate leaders today to expedite the administration food control bill, which is to be taken up in the house Monday and which the president wants enacted by July 1, before harvesting begins.

Senate leaders consider displacing the pending priority shipments bill or adding the latter bill as an amendment. The understanding had been that the senate would not consider the measure until after the house had disposed of it.

Late today Senator Chamberlain, senior Democrat of the agriculture committee, introduced the bill for formal reference to the committee, which called by Senator Gore to meet tomorrow with a view to an immediate report.

In order to give the food measure a clear track senate leaders tonight considering displacing the pending railroad priority shipment bill, or adding the latter bill as an amendment because of its relations to control of foodstuff transportation. Such an arrangement might get debate under way in the senate Saturday.

Talks With Kenyon and Hollis. After his conference with Senators Gore and Martin, the president called Senator Kenyon, Republican, and Senator Hollis, Democrat, to the white house to further explain his reasons for believing prompt action imperative.

Senators Hollis and Kenyon told the president there is greater need for the speedy enactment of food control legislation than there is of passage of the revenue bill and emphasized their arguments by pointing to the success of the Liberty loan to show that for the next few weeks at least there is no urgent need for taxing legislation.

Senator Hollis urged the president to appear before congress but Senator Kenyon took the position that might result in arousing the opposition to great efforts.

ENDORSE FEDERAL SUFFRAGE AMENDMENT

ment of the proposed federal woman suffrage amendment by a vote of 3 to 2 was given today by five of the ten members of the Democratic national executive committee in informal session after a regular business meeting had adjourned.

Representative Glass, who had been recognized opponent of the cause moved that the committee request President Wilson to urge congress for immediate favorable action.

Committee members said Mr. Glass' action was factitious and that the vote had no significance other than to represent the individual attitude of members, since the committee was not formally in session and less than a quorum was present.

WILL TAX NET PROFITS OF ALL PUBLISHERS

WASHINGTON, June 15.—A new tax of five per cent on the net profits of all newspaper and magazine publishers was written into the war tax bill by the senate finance committee in lieu of the two per cent advertising tax previously agreed upon and of the second class mail rate increases proposed in the house bill. The profits tax plan estimated to raise about $15,000,000 or about the same as the advertising tax previously proposed was adopted by a majority of one vote, with several members absent. There now is pending a motion by Senator Penrose, who voted for the levy to reconsider the decision Monday.

The committee also decided by a majority of one vote to repeal the "drawback" allowance to sugar refiners, raising $19,000,000 additional revenues.

ARREST EMMA GOLDMAN AND ALEX. BERKMAN

NEW YORK, June 15.—Emma Goldman, editor of "Mother Earth," and Alexander Berkman, editor of "The Blast," anarchists, were locked in the Tombs tonight on a complaint charging them with engaging in a conspiracy to induce men of military age not to register. Neither Miss Goldman nor Berkman seemed perturbed at their arrest. The former was smiling when she was led to her cell. She had previously served a term in the city penitentiary for inciting to riot during a strike. Berkman has served fourteen years of a twenty year term for shooting Henry C. Frick.

U.S. NAVAL GUNNERS MEET FIRST DEFEAT

U-Boat Sinks Tank Steamer
Moreni After Desperate Running Fight

SETS SURVIVORS ADRIFT

German Congratulates American Skipper On His Game Fight—Treats Wounded

ALL GUNNERS SAVED

WASHINGTON, June 15.—American naval gunners have met their first defeat in open fight with a German submarine. Official despatches today announced the destruction of the tank steamer Moreni, abandoned ablaze June 12 by her crew and armed guard, after a desperate running fight in the war zone which cost the lives of four of her crew.

Congratulations Americans. Half an hour later her 43 survivors, including all the naval gunners, were taken from their life boats by a passing steamer. The German commander had set them adrift after congratulating the American skipper upon his game fight and having the wounded men treated by the submarine's surgeon.

The submarine began the action at a range of four nautical miles. Premiering virtually no target herself, she sent two hundred shells at the big tanker, making many hits, while the American gunners wasted 150 shots.

Naval officers assume that the submarine was armed with the six inch rifles mounted by most of the newest undersea boats. No statement was available tonight as to whether she was one of the vessels that sailed without waiting for her full equipment including a range finder. The action of the submarine commander in treating his vanquished opponents with such unexpected courtesy was the subject of much comment. Germany has proclaimed her intention to treat British armed merchant crews as pirates. In this case even the naval bluejackets and their officer, properly prisoners of war, were set free.

State Department Report.

The story is told in this statement by the state department:

"The department of state is informed of the sinking of the American Tank Steamer Moreni about six o'clock on the morning of June 12 after a two hour running fight with a German submarine.

"The vessel was first fired upon from an estimated distance of 8,000 yards at four o'clock. The steamer, which was armed and carried a gun crew returned the shots and attempted to escape. There was a light breeze and smooth sea. The submarine was hardly visible. After 150 shots in reply to some 200 shots fired by the submarine, the crew abandoned the vessel which was all ablaze taking to the life boats in a fiery sea.

"An officer, Edward Cunningham of Brooklyn, was drowned while escaping in a boat. Wireless operator G. Curran, Jr., of New York died of heart failure in the life boat, and one seaman, E. Monstern was injured by gun fire and died in a life boat. Fireman A. Gooden also died of wounds. These last two were thrown by the surgeon of the submarine.

"The German submarine captain congratulated the American captain upon the splendid fight he had made. "Half an hour after the vessel was sunk the crew was picked up by a passing steamer. Forty-three of the original crew of 47 were landed. Six of these were slightly hurt and placed in a hospital. All the gunners were saved."

Standard Oil Ship.

New York, June 14.—The Moreni a tank steamer of 4,977 tons gross owned by the Standard Oil company of New York sailed from here May 1 for Baton Rouge, La., whence she departed May 12 for Leghorn, Italy. She was reported passing Gibraltar, June 12, the day she was sunk.

The Moreni was commanded by Captain Thomas Thompson. The Moreni was built in Bremerhaven, Germany, in 1913, was 354 feet long with a beam of forty-nine feet.

DISCUSSES SUBMARINE WARFARE AND WAR COSTS

BERLIN, June 14.—Via London, June 15.—Under the caption "Submarine warfare and war costs," the North German Gazette has the following to say:

In none of the warring countries has the question of war costs attracted that degree of attention one was previously led to believe it would be. One is almost inclined to assert that the higher the war costs mount the less attention they arouse and Lloyd George's word concerning the last silver bullets probably will never come true.

VISITORS NOT WANTED DURING THE WEEK

FORT SHERIDAN, Ill., June 15.—Visitors to the reserve officers' training camp here on other days than Saturday and Sunday are not wanted. At a meeting of the regular officers last night the instructors were told to notify their students that each time a visitor calls on a "prohibited day" a black mark will go down against the student, not on paper but in the mind of the regular army captain, who commands the company to which the one called on belongs. There are no sentries to keep visitors away, and this method was devised to discourage visitors at a time when the attention of the students is required at their tasks.

REPORT REVOLUTIONARY MOVEMENT IN SPAIN

Section of London Press Give Rumors Prominence

One Suggestion is That Move to Bring Spain into War is Materializing, but Available Information is That Crisis is Purely a Domestic One.

London, June 16.—Rumors of a serious revolutionary movement in Spain are given prominence in a section of the press. There has been an almost complete absence of news from the peninsula since the appointment of the new ministry.

Say Crisis is Domestic. Rumors of something abnormal in the Spanish situation have been given prominence in the last two or three days in a small section of the press. One suggestion is that a movement to bring Spain into the war is materializing but information available is to the effect that the crisis is purely a domestic one and largely due to the demand for reforms by the rank and file of the army.

One of the two Madrid telegrams which have reached here in the last four days carries a denial by Premier Dato of a report of insubordination on the part of the Bilbao garrison. This is the only confirmation of newspaper statements that Spain, according to the Express the army has obtained complete dominance, military "committees of defense" have been established and have tabulated a list of reforms demanded by the army. The action of the committees says the Express is a more or less vivid reflection of what happened in Petrograd. Premier Dato is powerless, as was his predecessor, Count Romanones, to obtain a modification of the soldiers' claims. The Express asserts that constitutional government is for the moment at an end and that the army is the ultimate arbiter of the crisis.

Reports Industrial unrest. The Daily News has similar information and reports also serious industrial unrest. It says the rank and file of the army contains as many factors as the populace and is probably the chief link between them in the matter of grievances. Bad conditions and poor pay in the army have bred angry feelings and there has been seething discontent in Barcelona. Labor troubles actual or threatened in many other districts are all partly explainable by the widespread poverty to which high food prices have brought the people.

The Chronicle information is that the discontent behind the crisis as far as the soldiers are concerned is the cleavage between the army and the court. The Spanish embassy in London disclaims knowledge of any such unusual situation. It is stated that neither commercial firms nor newspapers are able to get replies to telegraph queries.

RESUME FEDERAL PROBE OF KEET CASE

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., July 15.—The federal investigation of alleged abduction plots in Springfield, Mo., possibly under direction of agents of the German government was resumed today with the arrival from Kansas City of Arthur Bagley and Oscar Schmidt, special investigators of the department of justice.

Both admitted they had obtained certain statements from Claude J. Piersol, who is in jail at Kansas City where he was taken following the unsuccessful attempts by "vigilantes" to wring a confession from him at Stockton, Mo., last Saturday night in the disappearance and death of little Lloyd Keet.

DRAW SIDE ARMS TO DISPERSE CROWDS

NEW YORK, June 15.—National guardsmen tried vainly for nearly two hours tonight to disperse a riotous crowd at a hall in the east side, thence an anti-conscription mass meeting had been held. The anger of the crowd was aroused because guardsmen had seized after the meeting 25 men who were suspected of not having registration cards.

Not until the guardsmen drew their sidearms were they able to drive away the crowd.

AGREE TO FURNISH HIDES, AS NON-BELLIGERENTS

Montevideo, Uruguay, June 15.—The senate decided today that if American warships visit Uruguayan ports they will be treated as non-belligerents.

Albino Uruguay decreed its neutrality in the war between the United States and Germany, she expressed sympathy with the action of the United States.

SINK BRITISH MERCHANT CRUISER

STATES AMERICA NEEDS SACRIFICE

Davison Addresses Washington Chapter of Red Cross

Assets That He Hopes "That Whatever May be Needed to Arouse Us to a Greater Sacrifice Us From Our Selfishness Will Come to Us."

Washington, June 15.—Sacrifice which the war will bring is needed by America to lift its people to the spiritual exaltation developed in European warring nations, Henry P. Davison, chairman of the Red Cross war council, told the Washington chapter of the Red Cross today.

"I wish for no ill," he said. "But I hope and pray that whatever may be needed to arouse us to a sense of sacrifice and cleanse us from our selfishness will come to us."

People Slow to Change. Mr. Davison expressed doubt that if more than a percent of the Americans realize that we are to-day not only fighting for the principles upon which our republic was founded, but for our very existence. People of England and France also were slow to change their ideals early in the war, he said, but now, it seems as if their affection and regard for mankind had immeasurably increased. They seem to be without malice or design, envy or jealousy, without sordid ambition—to be living on a higher and better plane. Even with their terrible sorrow and suffering they seem to be stronger and surer and more content to meet whatever may be given them to meet.

The process of fire which has thus purified them has been for our account as well as their own. "I hope you will not think me an idealist. I was never more practical in thought. It is perhaps an appreciation of this that has caused me to go to the Red Cross."

Will Rejoice in Sacrifice. "For I firmly believe that thru the Red Cross we can not only render a service to the people of our allies—to those who are today fighting for us—but we can bring forcefully to our own people a sense both of their obligation and of their opportunity and I am optimistic enough to believe that the men and women of this country will in a not far distant day, rejoice in sacrifice—in real sacrifice—and demand that the Red Cross shall carry to the peoples then living of all our allies the heartfelt appreciation of what they have done for us, and express such appreciation by every possible aid and support within their power to send."

FIVE THOUSAND PERSONS AT LIBERTY

Suspended Sentences Imposed by Federal Courts Have Been Granted "Full Amnesty and Pardon"
by President Wilson

Washington, June 15.—Nearly five thousand persons at liberty under suspended sentences imposed by federal courts have been granted "full amnesty and pardon" by President Wilson in a proclamation carrying out the recently announced policy of extending clemency in such cases. Without the exercise of such clemency the persons affected would have been compelled under a supreme court mandate to return to custody today. The proclamation signed yesterday and made public today points out that many of those under suspended sentences have been at liberty for long periods and have established themselves as valuable factors in their communities so that their return to custody would serve no good purpose.

Amnesty and pardon is extended in all cases where the sentences were imposed were less than the period between the date of imposition and the present date, and in all cases where pleas or verdicts of guilty were entered prior to June 15, 1916, but no sentence passed. In all other cases of suspension a respite of six months is granted for investigation.

REPORT SINKING OF NORWEGIAN VESSELS

LONDON, June 15.—The sinking of several more Norwegian vessels with considerable loss of life is reported by the Norwegian foreign office as quoted in a Central News dispatch from Copenhagen. According to this information, the following craft have been sunk by German submarines:

Sigrun, steamer of 1,538 tons gross, crew rescued.
Cavnet, sailing vessel loaded with pit props, driven ashore and seriously damaged by gun fire; all the crew missing with the exception of one man, whose body was found.

Vinas, steamer 1,917 tons; only four men saved.
Sylvia, sailing vessel 145 tons; crew rescued.

Candace, sailing vessel, 395 tons; crew rescued.

U.S. TO TAKE OVER STEEL SHIPPING

Provision of War Budget
Bill Grants Power to Government

TO RUSH CONSTRUCTION

Construction of Standardized Ships Will Begin As Soon
As Ways are Cleared

STEEL SUPPLY ASSURED

WASHINGTON, June 15.—The vast amount of steel merchant shipping under construction in American yards—probably 2,000,000 tons—will be taken over immediately by the government under power granted in a provision of the war budget bill signed today by President Wilson.

Will Complete Ships on Yards. The announcement was made today at a conference of the country's steel shipbuilders with the shipping board and its emergency fleet corporation. Shipping now on the yards will be hurriedly completed by the institution of a system of double and triple working shifts and when the ways are cleared of present contracts the fleet corporation will begin construction of its great fleet of standardized steel vessels. Only by taking over contracts for itself can the government speed construction since congress failed to give it power to rush building for private owners. Contracts calling for future construction and on which actual work has not been started probably will be abrogated unless the fleet corporation decides the ships are specially fitted for the government needs.

Major General Goethals, general manager of the fleet corporation, told the shipbuilders today that he expected to turn out within the next eighteen months fully 3,000,000 tons of steel shipping and perhaps more. Steel companies he said, have agreed to furnish steel to build 800,000 tons a month. The only question, he said, is the capacity of the yards, working at topmost speed.

About 1,000,000 tons of the shipping building in American yards or contracted for is for British account. This the British government has agreed to turn over to the United States voluntarily. "The shipbuilders were told the government at this time has no intention of taking over the ship yards if the shipbuilders exert their utmost efforts to speed construction."

FARMERS ARE SINGLED OUT FOR ALL SACRIFICES

WASHINGTON, June 15.—Charges that farmers are singled out for all the sacrifices under the food control bill are made in a disheartening report from the agriculture committee today by Representative Haugen of Iowa.

"As prepared by the department of agriculture and introduced in the house," Representative Haugen declared, "the bill provided not only for food, feed and fuel control, but included shoes, clothing and other necessities of life. As introduced and now reported by the committee the bill limits control to foods, feeds, fuel and articles requiring for their production, which seems unjust not only to food producers but to consumers as well."

Representatives Young of Texas, Ward of New York and Wilson of Illinois, opposed to the bill in some particulars also may file minority reports.

EIGHT FRENCH SHIPS SUNK

Paris, June 15.—Four French ships of more than 1,600 tons, one under that size and three fishing vessels were sunk by mine or submarines during the week ending June 14. Six ships were unsuccessfully attacked during the same period while 1,034 vessels of all nations entered French ports and 1,915 left.

Again Friday Schram's jewelry store was crowded for the auction sales. In the afternoon the sale began at 2:30 and continued with unabated interest until 5:45. The crowd was just as large at the night sale which began at 7:30 and was not concluded until after 10 o'clock. Prospective bidders have the opportunity of specifying any article they want put up and if there is no special preference made known the auctioneers take goods from the shelves. Everything moves along briskly and there are no tiresome tridars as the auctioneers wait for bids. The purpose is to move this large high class stock of jewelry promptly and that is just what is being accomplished.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Butler of Lawrence, Kansas, arrived in the city Friday evening in their Ford de luxe car. It was originally a five passenger car but they had placed it on fancy wire wheels and fixed it up in various ways to make it look fine. They had a good many experiences in getting here.

Arriving at Glasgow, Mo., there was no way to ferry across the Missouri river and they had to load on a flat car and get over that way. At Louisiana, Mo., they crossed the Mississippi, and then up to Montezuma to cross the Illinois. They left yesterday for a tour of Ohio where they formerly lived.

The people of Ripon, Wis., have an attitude which is at once both patriotic and desirable. A year ago, their hope was that the government use $75,000 which had been appropriated for Ripon post-office to strengthen the nation's defenses. Their hope was that the money might be used for developing the work of an aviation corps. Now they have asked that the money be spent for the purchase of liberty bonds. Ripon will stand out in history, a unique city, for nothing like this proposal has ever before been heard from any community. The average town of even 500 people is ready to secure a $50,000 or $75,000 public building if the congressman from that district is able to get the appropriation thru. There is not enough sentiment in the average community to propose a substitute for a federal building even if the erection of such a building amounts to reckless waste of public funds.

MILITARY RANK FOR NURSES.

American trained nurses who are going to Europe are justified in their request that congress give them some sort of military rank. The particular reason lies in the fact that without such a rank they will not be given the due recognition in English hospitals. In England the trained nurse does not have the standing that she does in the U. S. In England she is looked upon as a servant instead of a professional worker.

So the American nurses, unless some title or rank is given them, will be subjected to certain social indignities when they begin service in England. Perhaps, happily out of this condition the women of England will be benefitted and the government led to see that the trained nurses are entitled to a recognition that has not been given them in the past. If this happens it will be but one in a series of advances made in the status of English women. Trained nurses in this country spend a longer period in preparation than many physicians and their professional service is of a kind which fully entitles them to the position they now hold in the public mind.

A CAMPAIGN OF EDUCATION

The liberty loan campaign has had a great educational influence in the opinion of some newspapers. The Chicago Post expresses the following views: "But the campaign has more than a patriotic value. It has been a vast movement in practical sociology. Beyond all question, an army of men and women, boys and girls, have been set on the road to form a habit of saving. The weekly installment plan means that a multitude will learn the value of laying aside a little regularity, and will persist in the practice after their bonds are paid for. All the thrift campaigns that were ever launched have not reached the thousands that this campaign has reached. Moreover, there has been profitable instruction in safe investment. A bond as a means of making savings earn will no longer be a remote mystery to the masses of people with small incomes. In countless homes, where such words were seldom heard, there has been much discussion of 'interest,' 'compons' and like LaSalle street terms, and it is safe to say an appreciation of investment opportunities has been created in a field but little cultivated hitherto.

"The wise savings bank, instead of bewailing withdrawals to buy bonds, will see an opportunity to reap a harvest of new accounts, and will follow up the campaign by enlisting bond buyers to continue their regular visits to the bank. "The whole country should be the better in spirit and in pocket as a result of this educational effort. The next bond issue will come much more easily than this, and the demands that the war will make for personal sacrifice will find readier response because of the intelligent interest that has been stimulated in the nation's great enterprise."

THE ORATORS OF YESTERYEAR.

Where are the silver tongued orators of yesteryear? Last fall James Hamilton Lewis, Congressman Rainey and other democratic orators were painting in vivid word pictures the horrors of European battlefields and urging the reelection of Mr. Wilson because he kept us out of war.

At this time, less than one year afterwards, we are in that war. And those silver tongued orators of a few months ago are not in evidence. But, strangest thing of all, in their place are two men who were opposed to Mr. Wilson and his policies.

Today we see two of the greatest men in this country and two of the greatest in the Republican party, Theodore Roosevelt and William H. Taft, supporting Mr. Wilson with all their strength and ability. These men have been unqualifiedly behind the president ever since he asked congress to declare war. While these men, both former presidents, have been doing this, some of the leaders in the Democratic party who should support Mr. Wilson have done and said things that have greatly hindered his policies.

The brand of Americanism displayed by Mr. Roosevelt and Mr. Taft is of the kind that should be displayed by every citizen who has the safety of the country and its institutions at heart. There should be no creeds, no political parties no anything—but Americanism. It should be a source of gratification to all citizens, but especially to those who are Republicans, that Mr. Roosevelt and Mr. Taft by their support of Mr. Wilson have so enlarged their influence that today their utterances are exceeded in force only by those of the president himself.

OVERALLS FOR WOMEN POPULAR.

Probably as a result of the war and the new lines of work which have thus come to women, "overalls" or overalls for women have come quite extensively into use. The fashion magazines have for months past been displaying pictures and patterns. A number of Jacksonville women are already wearing them and find the overalls of special advantage when they are working in the garden or attending to like duties. In European countries since the beginning of the war where women were called upon for new work in the factories, overalls were designed because of the great danger from skirts catching in machinery.

An old story has it that when our ancestors emerged from barbarism and began to discuss suitable dress to be adopted, the aristocracy talked over the matter and after agreeing on the garb for men, decided on dress for women for the following reasons: they would seek styles which would impede the motions as far as possible so that they might be impressed that they did not need the services of the fair sex; they favored adopting a manner and style which would call for the use of a large amount of material and thus show their wealth.

So it is said from this line of reasoning came the type of dresses which women have worn until recent years. But gradually styles have changed until women have enjoyed a greater sense of freedom, and the overalls for the intended purposes mark just another advance in permitting women to wear with propriety just the type of garments that happen to be best suited to comfort, convenience and safety, for whatever line of work they are following.

NO QUITTER.

Uncle Sam is not a quitter; he is slow to shed his coat, slow to draw his lethal weapons and demand another's goat. But when once the fass is started, tho the scrap be fierce and rough, Uncle Sam will go the limit and will never say "Enough!" When the warlike captains thunder, and the brazen bugles blare, Uncle Sam will join the serenade, with his catkins in the air, he will swing his shining sabre, he will whirl his deadly brand, till the Hohens cease their zollern, and the kaiser has been canned. You will see his banners flying, as today you see them flung, till he fetches home the bacon, and the last dog has been hung. Tho he's slow to indignation—as our neighbors long have felt—he can whip an anaconda when he tightens up his belt; oh, he'll scap and keep on scapping, never think to end the scrap, till the foe is shot to pieces and goes tumbling off the map; he'll conduct his redhot riot on the sea and on the land, till the Hohens cease from zollern, and the kaiser has been canned.

The British answer expresses sympathy with the principles enunciated by the United States and a wish to do everything possible to conform with President Wilson's desires. But it adds that Great Britain naturally must view the situation from a slightly different standpoint than the United States and that she may not be able to do all that the president suggests.

Ray Andrews and Miss Ina Freer attended the couple. Mrs. Calvin was reared in the Arenzville vicinity and during her residence here has formed a large number of friends. The groom came to this city from Chillicothe, Mo. For some time he has had employment as a cigar maker with the McCarthy-Gebert Co. and is a young man of industry and good repute. Mr. and Mrs. Calvin will have residence on North East street.

Shaw-Hester.

Anderson A. Shaw of Roodhouse and Miss Golda M. Hester of this city were licensed to marry Friday in St. Louis. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel J. Maloney, 211 Allen avenue. She was reared in Jacksonville and has a large number of friends who will join in wishing the couple a happy married life.

Skinner-Smith

Glenn E. Skinner and Miss Olive Smith were united in marriage Friday evening at 8:15 o'clock at the home of the bride's grandmother, Mrs. T. E. Rice, 212 North Church street. The ceremony was solemnized by Rev. M. L. Pontius, pastor of Central Christian church, of which both young people are members. The couple entered the parlor, unattended, as Miss Victory Spencer, of Springfield, cousin of the bride, played softly the wedding march from Lohengrin. The beautiful ring service was used by the pastor and when the ceremony was finished and the words of congratulation said, a dainty luncheon was served. Mr. and Mrs. L. I. Spencer of Springfield were among the guests.

The bride was attired in a gown of pale blue crepe de chine, trimmed in white Irish lace and embroidered with a pretty rose leaf design. She carried a bouquet of bride's roses. Her traveling suit was of dark blue serge, with a sailor hat of black. The wedding of Mr. Skinner and Miss Smith comes as a consummation of a romance begun in high school days. Both are numbered among the city's most popular young people and their marriage will call forth the sincere good wishes of friends on every hand. To many the news will come with surprise as it was not known that the wedding would take place until later in the month.

The groom is the son of G. V. Skinner and received his education in the Jacksonville schools, having been a member of the class of 1912, to which his future bride belonged. For the past three years he has held a postman's position at the Jacksonville post office. He is a member of the Knights of Pythias lodge and the D. O. K. K. and has attained prominence also in the musical circles of the city.

The bride is the only daughter of Mrs. W. S. Smith and after her graduation from J. H. S. attended Brown's Business college and finished a stenographic course the following year. For three years she has held a position in the office of the Railway & Light Co., and her record for speedy and efficient work there has earned her a high place in the regard of her employers. She is a young woman whose charming manner and many good qualities have won her a place in the hearts of many friends and the wish with which she will receive could hardly be numbered.

Mr. and Mrs. Skinner will enjoy a brief wedding journey to Chicago and after July 1 will be at home to their friends at 853 South East street. Mrs. Skinner will retain her position as secretary to Supt. E. H. Gray, planning to resume her duties with the company soon after her return.

GENERAL PERSHING TO GO TO THE FRONT TODAY

Spends Last Day in Paris in Making Official Calls

American Commander Has Luncheon With Marshal Joffre and Visits Senate—Places Wreath on Tomb of Lafayette in Picpus Cemetery.

Paris, June 15.—Major General John J. Pershing, commander of the American military forces in France, spent his third and last day in Paris before leaving for the front in making official calls, paying a visit to Marshal Joffre with whom he had luncheon and visiting the senate. He also visited the Picpus cemetery, where he placed a wreath on the tomb of Lafayette. During his visit to the senate the senators stood when he appeared in the diplomatic box, accompanied by William Graves Sharp, the American ambassador, and applauded him for several minutes. The general had to bow his acknowledgments repeatedly.

Viviani Addresses Senate. M. Viviani and the premier, alluded to the presence of the distinguished American soldier and called on Foreign Minister Viviani to address the senate. M. Viviani described the refusal of the United States to see the ideals of civilization, of democracy and of right in battle with destructive forces without taking her part which he declared was a great and noble part.

M. Viviani alluded to "the great figure of President Wilson standing behind all manifestations of the American passion for justice."

Shout "Vive Les Etats-Unis." The speaker was frequently interrupted by applause and at the close of his address all the members of the senate stood and, turning again toward General Pershing, clapped their hands and shouted "Vive Les Etats-Unis." General Pershing rose and bowed several times before the demonstration subsided.

The senate took a recess of half an hour so that the members might be introduced to General Pershing and Antonio Dubost, president of the senate, escorted him thru Luxembourg Palace introducing him to the members, Baron d'Escourvalles de Constant assisting in the presentations.

ANNOUNCES SHORTAGE IN MILITARY PROPERTY

Minnesota Governor Makes Announcement After Investigation of 1916 Records in Adjutant General's Office.

St. Paul, Minn., June 15.—Shortage that may reach the value of $50,000 in government military property issued to the Minnesota National Guard were announced by Governor Burquist late today following an investigation of 1916 records completed today in the office of Adjutant General Fred B. Wood.

Property such as rifles and bayonets valued at $19,994.33; quartermaster supplies including tentage and like equipment at $17,874.15, and smaller miscellaneous items are unaccounted for according to the official report. The investigation was under the direction of Captain W. F. Rhinow, military secretary to Governor Burquist. It was intended primarily to make required returns demanded by the federal war department before additional funds or supplies would be furnished the Minnesota guard. Captain Rhinow said the condition of records in the adjutant general's office made close check difficult and impossible in some cases and also precluded a satisfactory check of federal funds handled during the year.

Adjutant General Wood is in Duluth today.

Refuses To Comment.

Duluth, Minn., June 15.—Adjutant General B. Wood, when shown the despatch from St. Paul announcing a shortage of the government military property issued to the Minnesota National Guard, refused to make any comment "before seeing the returns." He declared he was not in a position to make a statement at present.

BALFOUR SPEAKS TO RELIEF COMMITTEE

LONDON, June 15.—Arthur J. Balfour, foreign secretary today dignified his first public appearance since he returned from the United States by a speech at the second annual meeting of the national committee for relief in Belgium at the mansion house.

In his address Mr. Balfour advised every one to read President Wilson's Flag Day address because of its relation to Germany's treatment of Belgium.

"In President Wilson's speech," said Mr. Balfour, "you will find justification of this great alliance among all nations who love liberty against the monstrous Tyranny and coercion with which the civilized world is threatened if we submit to an inconclusive and ineffective peace. 'The one true remedy for the wrongs of Belgium is the defeat of Germany.'"

The action of the United States in taking over the whole cost of the relief of Belgium was greeted with applause by several hundred persons most prominent in this relief work and who have collected nearly two and a half million pounds for it.

Walter Hines Page, the American ambassador, followed Mr. Balfour.

PLAN TO MAKE U. S. GREAT TRAINING BASE

Defense Council's Aircraft Board Formulates Plans

Believes This Country Can Not Only Supply Machines Suited for Training Work but can take Care of the Needs of All the Allies.

Washington, June 15.—Plans for making the United States a great elementary training base for aviators of all the allied nations have been formulated by the defense council's aircraft production board which believes this country can supply not only machines suited for the training work for some months to come but can take care of the needs of all the allies in that respect.

French and British plans under the plan would be released for the manufacture of battle craft exclusively while American plants are developing a battle type which by next spring probably could give a formidable addition to the French and British supplies. The plan to bring all allied student aviators to the United States for elementary training is an outgrowth of the enormous expansion of the government aircraft policy. Brigadier General Squier, in charge of army aviation made it clear today that the war department stands back of this campaign which he said was necessary to put the Yankee punch into the war.

"Our plan contemplates nothing less than driving the German fleet out of the air and maintaining a constant raiding patrol over territory for 50 miles back of the fighting lines," said Chairman Howard E. Coffin of the board tonight. "If we carry thru our program to produce the thousands of machines planned, the permanent supremacy of the allies in the air is assured. What we need is the money to carry the program thru."

If European aviators are sent to the United States for elementary training, the number of training fields will be increased to a score or more and additional universities will be designated to give technical aviation courses.

MAKE NOTE FROM URUGUAY PUBLIC

Finds Itself in Full Sympathy With Ideals Expressed in Brazilian Note.

New York, June 15.—A communication sent by Uruguay to Brazil regarding Brazil's departure from its attitude of neutrality in the war was made public tonight by Jose Roehling, consul general of Uruguay. A free translation follows in part:

"The government of Uruguay takes pleasure in informing the minister of Brazil that it finds itself in full sympathy with the ideals expressed in the Brazilian note, it repeats once more its very earnest desire to see the American countries in collective and actual co-operation, adopted a policy which will find expression in lawful forms or in practical methods to the end that these countries may achieve a solidary beneficial to all."

"The interests involved logically demand for the efficiency of the forms and methods above referred to, and the free development of the countries—in the light of the appalling events which move the world—a close union of action so that any act perpetrated against one of the countries of America in violation of the precepts of international law shall cause a common reaction in all."

"Uruguay cherishes the hope that the American nations will see their way clear to adopt a collective policy in the direction and trusts that this aspiration may soon be realized and thus allow the Americans the full measure of influence in the destinies to which they are entitled."

TORNADO IN INDIANA

DID MUCH DAMAGE. The recent cyclonic storms which visited the middle west proved even worse in parts of Indiana than was true in Modesto and other places in Central Illinois. The town of Hoboken, Ind., in the northern part of the state was virtually a wreck, Miss Anna E. Day and Harold Day, recently returned from a visit there, report several escapes from death which seemed miraculous.

Miss Day left for Hebron several days after the storm, having received word that the residence of Louis Humeau had been demolished and that Mr. and Mrs. Humeau were found buried in the ruins. Arriving in Hebron she found that neither had been seriously injured, the such was the storm's violence that their escape from instant death could hardly be explained. Their daughter, Miss Adele Humeau, was badly bruised and other members of the family escaped with slight injuries.

Miss Humeau was a classmate of Miss Day at the University of Illinois and has several times visited in Jacksonville.

MAY FORCE VOTE ON PRIORITY BILL TODAY

Administration Leaders Plan Move—Opponents Promise Continued Opposition.

Washington, June 15.—After another day of fruitless discussion of the bill empowering the president to order priority in railroad transportation of troops, war supplies and necessities, administration leaders tonight planned to force a final vote on the measure tomorrow if possible. Opponents of the bill promise continued opposition.

Senator Newlands gave notice formally that he would move tomorrow to fix a time for a final vote upon the bill and all amendments. He also decided to withdraw modifying amendments to which Senators Reed, Smith of Georgia, Harwick and other opponents had assented and to stand upon the original administration draft with a single modification denying damages to railroads for losses due to prior routings ordered.

Amendments to be offered tomorrow by the opposition will propose that presidential priority orders be limited to military "necessities" or that the inter-state commerce commission or a special board of three members named by the president and approved by the senate shall have the power to direct prior transportation.

Extension of the president's authority was the principal objection voiced against the bill today.

WAR LOAN HEAVILY OVERSUBSCRIBED

scribers to this loan numbered 1,177,235.

Great Britain's first loan was $58,171,702 pounds, approximately $92,229,575,702. It was taken by 100,000 subscribers, or less than four percent of the number that apparently subscribed to America's first war loan.

Great Britain's first war loan was taken almost entirely by her wealthy classes.

Measured by the standard of total subscribers the Liberty loan stands in a class by itself as a nation's first war offering.

Exceed All Estimates

Chicago, June 15.—Subscriptions to the Liberty loan in the Chicago federal reserve district exceeded all estimates. Announcement was made here at midnight that not less than $330,000,000 of the loan had been taken in this district of which $223,000,000 had been tabulated. Exact figures on the total will not be given until tomorrow as the fatigued clerks compiling the figures will not be able until that time to complete their work.

The total was subscribed by Iowa, portions of Illinois, including Chicago, Indiana, Michigan and Wisconsin. Subscriptions in Chicago, as tabulated up to midnight amounted to $162,000,000. These tabulations by states in the seventh federal reserve district follows:

Illinois (including Chicago)	$186,000,000
Michigan	54,000,000
Indiana	30,000,000
Iowa (entire state)	28,000,000
Wisconsin	25,000,000

It was pointed out by representatives of the federal reserve bank that the amounts credited to Illinois, Indiana, Michigan and Wisconsin do not include portions of the states in other reserve districts.

New York District Total

New York, June 15.—With the returns from a few upstate towns not yet received the New York federal reserve districts had subscribed for $1,020,000,000 of Liberty loan bonds, it was officially announced tonight by the Liberty loan committee.

The Liberty loan committee gave out tonight a completion of the subscriptions received up to noon from 119 banks in Greater New York. The total reached the enormous amount of $829,562,000. The ten banks subscribing the largest sums for themselves and their customers were:

First National	$110,000,000
National City	87,000,000
Guaranty Trust	78,000,000
Bankers Trust	70,000,000
National Bank of Commerce	60,000,000
Chase National	47,000,000
Central Trust	40,000,000
Hanover National	28,500,000
Mechanics and Metals National	28,000,000
Farmers Loan and Trust	27,500,000

Total dealings in Liberty loan bonds which began on New York Stock Exchange at noon amounted to $813,100.

MURRAYVILLE MASONS HAVE HOMECOMING

Special Meeting of Murrayville Lodge No. 432, a Red Letter Day Among Members of the Order—Ladies Will Organize Eastern Star

The Special meeting of Murrayville Lodge No. 432, A. F. & A. M., was attended by one hundred and fifty Masons who gathered to assist Murrayville lodge in the celebration of their homecoming. For eight years past the Masons of Murrayville lodge have met in Woodson and it was to observe the change to the original place of meeting that the event was planned. The degree work was put on by picked teams, some of the best informed Masons of Central Illinois assisting with the work. Visitors were present from many lodges and altogether, the celebration will be remembered as a red letter day in Morgan County Masonry. Among the lodges represented were Jacksonville and Harmony lodges, this city, Winchester, Manchester, Pearl, Nebo, Mexico, Mo. Scottville, White Hall, Goodhouse Bluffs Franklin and Lynville.

The lodge was opened for work Friday afternoon at 1 o'clock and two candidates were given the rites of the third degree. At 6 o'clock a bountiful supper was served to Masons and their families more than three hundred people partaking of this generous repast. The degree work was then continued, the large number present made a change of location necessary and the lodge convened in Carlson's hall for the third degree lecture work. A new stereopticon, recently purchased by the White Hall lodge, was used to good advantage at this time.

When the work was finished a social session followed and talks were made by a number of the visitors. Among those who spoke were Dr. G. W. Miller of Woodson, the Rev. C. S. McCollom, Payson, Ill.; Judge F. C. Funk, Winchester; Dr. R. L. Hamilton, White Hall, and the Rev. F. M. Crabtree, White Hall.

For some time the formation of an Eastern Star lodge at Murrayville has been considered and a meeting will be held this evening there to take the steps necessary for organization. A considerable number of eligible women have already made application and it seems probable that the Murrayville lodge, Order Eastern Star, will begin under auspices most favorable.

MANY TAKE C. & A. EXCURSION TO CHICAGO

Two Hundred and Fifty Go for Reduced Fare Trip on Alton Hummer.

The excursion to Chicago over the Chicago and Alton Friday night was one of the best patronized in many months. More than 240 tickets were sold for the Hummer and it seemed probable that those going on the 6 o'clock train would bring the number well above the 250 mark.

Among the Jacksonville people who took advantage of the excursion were Thomas Harber, J. B. Johnson, Leo S. Johnson, John W. Larson, J. S. Alkire and family, Miss Georganna Bacon, Mrs. Earl Carlisle and children, Miss Anna Pike, Reese Smith, John Bryson, George Sutton, Bernard Gause, Mrs. Arch Norris, Miss Ida Norris, W. L. Alexander, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fawcett, Miss Ursula Fawcett, Roy Branstetter, Misses Irene Hadden, Bess Hadden, Hulda Faugust, Hazel Rustemeyer, Catherine O'Brien, Gladys Hamilton, Ethel Lucas, Bertha Lucas, Nellie Sullivan, Alice Ross, Nina Wright and Ethel Mann, Mrs. Henry Engel, Miss Lena Engel, Miss Mary Sullivan and Mrs. J. W. Clary.

HOUSE WORKS LATE

Springfield, Ill., June 16.—The house of representatives worked well into the morning today to prepare for the final adjournment late tonight or early Sunday.

The senate vocational educational bill was killed. This cuts Illinois out of the federal appropriation for vocational schools.

ARREST SWOBODA IN ZURICH

Paris, June 15.—Raymond Ruff Swoboda, who was held for some time by the Paris police in the spring of 1915 on suspicion of causing a fire on board the French liner La Touraine, has been arrested by the Zurich police, according to the Zurich correspondent of the Petit Parisien.

WAR NEWS SUMMARIZED

Field Marshall Haig has again attacked the Hindenburg line and captured a section of the famous German position northwest of Bellecourt. The Germans resisted the British stubbornly but finally yielded after suffering heavy casualties according to London.

In Flanders the British have extended their gains astride the Ypres-Comines canal in that direction of Comines and in the region of Messines toward Warneton on the Franco-Belgian border. Since June 7 the British have succeeded in occupying the German first line trenches from the river Lys to the river Warnave and have advanced their lines on a seven mile front from 500 to 1,000 yards. Berlin officially admits a withdrawal of the German front line between Ypres and Arras east of Messines.

Elsewhere in France as well as in the Trentino region of the Austro-Italian front and in Macedonia there has been little except artillery activity of varying intensity.

RUTH LAW COMPLETES FLIGHT TO CHICAGO

CHICAGO, June 15.—Miss Ruth Law, the aviatrix who began a flight at St. Louis yesterday in the interest of the Liberty Loan, but who was forced to descend last night arrived here from Joliet at 5:15 o'clock.

When Miss Law descended at Grant Park on the Lake Front the gas tanks of her airplane were leaking and all but empty. She left St. Louis shortly after 2 o'clock on Thursday afternoon. She reached Lexington, Ill., 29 miles north of Bloomington about 6 p. m., where she was forced to descend on account of engine trouble. She resumed her flight shortly after midnight. Leaking gas tanks forced her to descend at Joliet where another delay was encountered.

Miss Law followed the line of the Chicago & Alton railroad and dropped Liberty Loan bombs thruout her flight.

She was met by a committee of the Liberty Loan publicity committee headed by Edward Clifford. A crowd of several hundred persons greeted the aviatrix on her arrival in Chicago.

GERMANS ADMIT FOOD DIFFICULTIES

COPENHAGEN, June 15.—via London.—Official admission of food difficulties in Germany resulting from a shortage of potatoes and the inadequacy of grain stocks is made in an announcement of the food control department. The announcement states that five pound potato ration will be abandoned and that while an attempt will be made to supply bread in the place of potatoes the quantity must be reduced.

Prospects for the grain crop are becoming dark owing to the long continued drought. A few showers fell the first of this month but the amount of rain fall is quite inadequate.

SHIP LARGE QUANTITIES OF MILK TO GERMANY

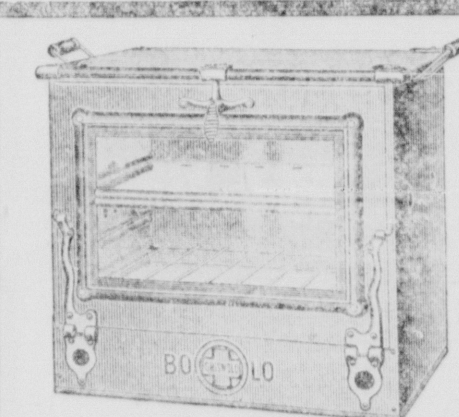

WASHINGTON, June 15.—Large quantities of condensed or evaporated milk have been bought recently at retail and shipped to Germany thru neutral ports, the department of commerce was informed today by the war committee of the condensed milk industry.

Buying operations have been reported in New York, Illinois and Oklahoma and shipments were made to Genoa, Italy, and Norwegian and Danish ports, where ordinarily little American milk is bought. The manufacturers' war committee will seek to aid the government in preventing future shipments.

FUNERAL SERMON OF
REV. C. T. CAYWOOD

Discourse on "The Art of Letting Go" Written by Deceased and Read at His Request as Part of Funeral Services.

Many friends of the late Rev. C. T. Caywood have asked that his funeral sermon be published in the Journal.

The funeral sermon was written on February 1st, 1917 by Rev. Mr. Caywood himself and at his request was read by the Rev. Newton Ambrose, of Manchester, as a part of the funeral services. The theme was "The Art of Letting Go." The text was Philippians, 3:13. "Brethren, I count not myself yet to have laid hold; but one thing I do, forgetting the things which are behind, and stretching forward to the things which are before, I press on toward the goal unto the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus."

I will use only the words "Forgetting the Things Which are Behind." Valuable is the art of never forgetting. A part of the skill of life which should be acquired is the fine art of letting go. An important piece of furniture is the waste basket. It stands in the office and in the library and gathers the clippings and the waste. The city has its waste cans and the dump or holocaust, the housekeeper a convenient fire and perhaps a vacuum cleaner. If it were not for the waste basket, the dump and the transforming fire we should all be kept busier than we are, sorting, labeling, and storing useless waste.

Yet I fear this is what many of us mentally and spiritually are doing. Retaining, asserting, classifying and storing in the files and on the shelves of memory—useless waste. Perhaps it is the economical instinct of the mind. If so it is to be blamed for extravagance. There is not room in the heart, for all the experiences and possessions of the past. Choose: Learn to let go.

Do you have hours when the only possible thing, apparently the only right thing to consider, is something that gnaws the heart and frets the mind? Ah then the thing that was not to have been! What griefs have fallen upon us! What losses we have sustained! Shall we keep them? Shall we keep open the sepulcher of the past and ask our friends to keep flowers of sympathy upon it? Now if this is the best the past has done for us, let it pass in peace.

The past is dying in the night. Rings out sweet bells, and let him die.

Heart wounds are inevitable. In the thorny paths, the sensitive flesh will feel the sting of the prickly pear and the rose. The dearest and tenderest associations of human life as well as the rough and hardy will sometimes wound our sensibilities and offend our tastes. If we remember all our slights, if we number all wounds, if we stop to think of every inward pain, we shall be most miserable, treasuring these in memory we shall be letting go the sweets, the joys, the chances of friendship, and service, that make life a joy to ourselves and to others. Which shall we let go?

"Go bury thy sorrow. The world has its share. Go bury it deeply. Go hide it with care."

"Hearts growing weary With heavier woe. Now droop 'mid the darkness—Go comfort them, go."

It is a passable truth that a healthy mind in a sound body will not forebode misfortune. Yet, anxiety, and past hardships crouch in the face of the smiling future. Forethought often creates fear. We look for concealed weapons in hands of the future and ask, Well? What next?

How largely depends on ourselves. Clouds shut out sunshine. Fear weakens. Gloom depresses, anxiety warps the judgment and fortifying ourselves in a narrow cavern we shut out the hosts of resolution, cheer, vigor and spirit that would be ready to defend us. Then "The Art of Letting Go" comes to our relief. (Or rescue.) The speech of the Apostle falls upon us! "Brethren! I count not myself to have laid hold. But one thing I do; Forgetting the things that are behind and stretching forward to the things that are before I press on!" The past—or the future? The encouragements or the discouragements? Forethought or fear-thought? Choose which shall we let go?

"Give to the winds thy fears; Hope and be undismayed; God hears thy sighs and counts thy tears; God shall lift up thy head."

"Through waves and clouds and storms He gently clears the way; Wait thou His time: so shall this night Soon end in joyous day."

All serve the same end, the blowing of fogs between us and our neighbors; fogs that conceal the real character at best and shut out from our vision any possible brightening of the soul life of another. If there is warmth in our own souls it falls chilled in the damp and irritated air that lies between them and us. We should let grudge and prejudice go. James Whitcomb Riley has the secret:

"When over the fair face of friend or foe A shadow of disgrace shall fall, instead Of words of blame or proof of thus and so, Let something good be said."

"Forget not that no fellow creature yet May fall so low but love may lift its head Even the cheek of shame with tears is wet If some good thing be said."

PEAK FAMILY HELD
REUNION HERE FRIDAY

Descendants of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob R. Peak of Scott County Gathered at Nichols Park—Give Family History

Nichols Park presented a merry appearance yesterday when a string of automobiles drew into it bearing some half a hundred members of the Peak family, the descendants of "in laws" of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob R. Peak of the vicinity of Winchester, who had sought Jacksonville's popular resort for a family reunion and picnic. Tables were assembled for them on the chautauqua grounds and the whole affair was a fine success. They were accompanied by Rev. W. R. Johnson, wife, son W. R. Jr. and daughter Jane. Everything went well with the merry-makers and they returned home in high spirits.

Jacob R. Peak was born in McMahon county, Tenn., Oct. 29, 1828 and was the son of Bird and Harriet Williams Peak. His father was a farmer of sterling character and piety. When Jacob was three and one half years old his parents moved to the spot now occupied by Eketter and later moved south of Winchester and he has lived in that region practically ever since with the exception of a summer passed in Montgomery county. He was married October 19, 1849 to Miss Mary Young, daughter of J. B. Young, a colonel in the Black Hawk war. She was born and reared on the farm now occupied by the family. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Thompson, a good man of the Baptist faith, and the young people began in an humble way. Mrs. Peak and her husband laughed as they told the reporter of their beginning in an humble way on rented land. Now they have a large and comfortable house and a little garden patch of 700 acres which keeps them well supplied with vegetables.

Home a Primitive One
The home consisted of a log cabin with one room, a lean to used in summer and a loft over the living room and reached by a ladder and floored with split boards. There sometimes extra company was lodged and if a baby was of the number it was handed up after the parents had first ascended. A sick fireplace was at once a heating and cooking place with primitive appliances. A crane supported the pots and kettles while a heavy cast Dutch oven or skillet with heavy cast lid, was the place for baking bread and biscuits. It was covered with ashes and live coals which were occasionally changed to keep it hot. White bread was rather a luxury, corn pone and mush being more frequently the articles of diet along with pork, sausage and spare ribs in the winter and pickled pork in the summer.

Hominy was made in a stump scooped out; sausage was cut with knife or cleaver on a block; pumpkins and later apples were strung and hung to dry; wool was carded and woven and substantial garments which lasted a long time when extra company arrived hospitality was bestowed without grudging. Extra beds were made on the floor; the men went out while the ladies retired and then the ladies turned their faces to the wall while the men went to bed and let it be known that people were pure and upright without false appearances and shame.

Luxuries Unknown
Corn was shelled by hand and taken to mill on horseback and made into meal for family use and it was good. There was considerable game which helped furnish variety; comforts and luxuries were unknown and not missed. Light was furnished sometimes with a primitive lamp suspended to the wall, filled with grease and with a wick extending over the side. The old lamp with its cotton flannelwick, the tall candles, the camphene and spirit lamps, all the predecessors of coal oil are familiar to the pioneers.

When the old fashioned step cook-stoves first came around it was an aristocratic thing to have one and the writer has known old ladies in his boyhood who had cooked their faces so long from preparing meals over a fireplace that they often continued it from choice.

There was no danger of modern higher criticism among the preachers of those early days. They took the Bible as it reads and were not at all troubled with doubts regarding any of its passages. They preached the gospel straight from the shoulder with no mealy-mouthed words whatever and their preaching was blessed abundantly.

Returned to Scott County
Mr. Peak entered some land in Montgomery county near Litchfield but the summer he was there he was sick so he returned to Scott county, bought 83 acres of Martin Edmonson who had bought it of Alvin Bean. He agreed to pay $20 an acre for it turning in his Montgomery county farm in the deal and paying 12 1/2 per cent interest on the unpaid balance.

Eighteen years after his marriage he bought the farm which had belonged to his wife's father, added to it and has lived there ever since. His children and families are Howard, deceased, leaving a widow and two children; Albert, wife and seven children; James Y., wife and three children; Alice, Mrs. W. W. Hamilton, five children; Kate, Mrs. George M. Stewart, five children and two grandchildren.

Mr. and Mrs. Peak are sterling members of the Baptist church in Winchester and a force for good in the community. He always did like a fine horse and his oldest son George imbibed the same tendencies and when yet a young man went to Kentucky to select two stallions, one a roadster and one an all purpose animal. The father described what kind of horses he wanted the son to bring back with him and he filled the bill with the fine horses he brought back. One was Kentucky

And so I charge you by the thorny crown
And by the cross on which the Savior bled;
And by your soul's hope of fair renown;
Let some good thing be said!"

"How shall I a habit break?
As you did that habit make.
As you gathered you must lose;
As you yielded now refuse.
Thread by thread the strands we twist
Till they bind us neck and wrist.
Thread by thread the patient hand
Must untwine ere free we stand."

"Remember, as we try Lighter every test goes by;
Wading in, the stream grows deep
Toward the center's downward sweep;
Backward turn, each step ashore
Shallower is than that before."

"Why," exclaims a listener, "If I drop so much from memory, from thought, from habit, I shall lose my identity and shall be a strange, mindless creature in the world." No we shall only be clearing our desks and houses of useless waste. And if indeed, we seem like new creatures, then we have the secret of the gospel of Jesus Christ, of the soul a new birth. A continual re-creation is the marvelous possibility of the human mind. "The things that are seen are temporal. The things that are not seen are eternal."

ALLEGED SLACKER ARRESTED
Detective Perry White arrested a young man Friday afternoon who gave his name as George Parkinson for not being in possession of a registration card. Parkinson was turned over to the sheriff and that officer will notify the federal authorities and he will probably be taken to Springfield.

Parkinson who says he was born in the state of Maryland, came here from Kansas City, Mo., Friday morning. He began to look about for a job and applied at the Atlantic cafe for a job as dishwasher. The proprietor immediately asked him if he had a registration card. He said he did not and the police were notified and he was placed under arrest by Detective White.

The young man says that he can neither read nor write and hence did not know much about the agitation for registration that has been going on in the papers for the last few weeks. Whether or not this fact will get him any leniency remains to be seen. There is little excuse, however, for any young man in this day not being able to read and write the English language if he was born and reared in this country.

BAXTER & SON MAKE RECORD COW SALE

Deliver 15,225 Bushels to Elevators at Ashland and Litchberry.

A record sale of corn has just been recorded by H. B. Baxter & Son of Ashland. They have recently finished delivering their 1916 corn crop to the elevators at Ashland and Litchberry. They have delivered 15,225 bushels, for which they received the goodly sum of $23,280. Most of this corn was sold at $1.56 1/2 per bushel.

It is said that this is the largest sale of corn of any one year's crop and brought the most money ever recorded in Cass, Morgan or Saginaw counties. There is every reason to expect that with this year's crop another record will be established, for Messrs. Baxter have 842 acres of their land planted in corn. They are fortunate in owning extensive acreages of high class Illinois land and furthermore, they thoroughly understand the intricate business of farming.

ALTON CHANGE WILL NOT INJURE ROODHOUSE

As a result of a conference between Chicago and Alton officials, employees of the road and business men of Roodhouse it has been announced that the proposed operation plans on the western division of the road will not be of a kind injurious to Roodhouse. It had been rumored that certain preferred freight runs would be so arranged that crews would be changed at Booth and that for this cause a number of train crews now residing in Roodhouse would be moved to Stater.

The conference brought out the fact that the numerous changes were not of a kind which will be detrimental to Roodhouse. All the business men there are happy in the thought that Roodhouse is to retain its importance as a division point. There are about forty train and engine crews resident there and if such changes were made that many of the men would remove elsewhere there would be a resulting loss of business for the merchants of the town.

UNIQUE CONDITIONS IN SUMMER LABOR MARKETS

Produced by Failure of Winter Wheat Crop and Indicated Bountiful Yields in Spring Wheat Belt—Survey of Situation in Chief Producing States.

Chicago, June 15.—Failure of the winter wheat crops and increased acreage and indicated bountiful yields in the spring wheat belt have combined to produce unique conditions in the summer labor markets of the plain states. Not until Minnesota, the Dakotas and Montana begin late in July to harvest what have been predicted as the largest crops in their history will there be a demand that communities other than those in touch with the fields send helpers to the farmers. Hitherto the Macedonian cry has been heard two months earlier.

"Kansas will be able to handle its harvest this year with men coming from states that surround us. It will be folly for anyone to come from east of the Mississippi," says the labor bulletin of the Kansas department of labor and industry.

"Nebraska will not need any outside help now or in the wheat harvest," says Prof. E. L. Richards of the federal department of agriculture who is handling the labor question in that state. "We are short less than fifty men and they are needed to cultivate corn."

Contrasted to this picture are reports from the northwest. State and federal officials in touch with the situation are unanimous in predicting a real need for harvest hands when the spring wheat reaches maturity. Only hail or blights or similar calamity to the fields can stand in the way of the fulfillment of these forecasts, it is said.

A survey of the situation in the chief wheat producing states follows:

Kansas—Harvesting begins June 25 to July 20. The wheat crop is the smallest in years. Reports to the state department of labor and industry indicate that only 7,500 men will be needed in the fields, this number being about one fifth of the army generally wanted in Kansas. Prospective harvest hands are warned not to pay fees to private labor agencies but to communicate with the state or federal free employment bureaus.

Nebraska—No outside help needed at all. Only ten per cent of the winter wheat that was seeded is surviving and estimates of the crop vary from 3,000,000 to 6,000,000 bushels as against 69,000,000 in 1916.

Illinois—No outside help needed. Winter wheat in southern counties is practically a failure and the state will be able to take care of its own corn and spring wheat harvests.

Iowa—Not important as a wheat state but if there is a decrease in that cereal it will be compensated for by increased demands for labor from corn farmers. Ambrose L. Ack, state labor commissioner, points out that corn crops are not rushed in harvest as is wheat and expects no great difficulty in finding the necessary men.

North Dakota—Survey of the state with reference to crop and labor conditions is being made by Robert J. Leth of the federal department of agriculture. He already has found prospects of a much larger crop than last year with a consequent greater demand for labor.

Minnesota—Fred D. Sherman, state immigration commissioner, says the demand for labor will be greater than can be filled locally. He has reporters in every county and because of increased acreage predicts the largest wheat crop in the history of the state. High school boys to be sent out to work on the farms will help "a little" he says.

THREE FALLS ON WIRES.
A large maple tree which was being cut down in front of the McFarlane property in North Church street got away from the workmen Friday afternoon about 4:30 o'clock and fell across the telephone and electric light wires completely wrecking them.

The tree was being removed by Simon Fawcett to prepare for placing a new walk in front of the McFarlane property. Fawcett had two boys assisting him and they were unable to direct the fall of the tree.

Three poles were broken and all of the wires put out of commission. One of the poles in front of the Obermeyer residence carried a cable and this was broken. Damage also was done to the light wires of the Railway and Light company and the city plant.

It required some time to clear the street of the wreckage and it will require several days to get all the telephones and light wires in working order. The damage probably will amount to $500.

RED CROSS WARNS AGAINST CHAIN LETTERS

None are Authorized by the National or State Organizations—Directions are Given for Knitting Socks and Other Things for Soldiers.

The local chapter of the Red Cross society has received a letter from the national society warning all persons against endless chain letters in the interest of the Red Cross. It seems that a number of such unauthorized letters have been started and in fact, the local officers have received a number of inquiries from people here as to whether they should answer chain letters they had received. All solicitation of funds for the Red Cross society work must come from the national society or the subsidiary chapters, so that the work may be conducted along definite lines. The communication referred to is as follows:

The American Red Cross
Washington, D. C.
June 11, 1917.

To All Chapters:
Numerous "endless chain" letters have been brought to the attention of the Red Cross, many of them for causes worthy in themselves, but conducted by unrecognized individuals. Nothing of this sort has ever been authorized by the Red Cross, and this is to inform you all such methods of raising money are without the countenance or counsel of the national headquarters.

Elliot Wadsworth,
Acting Chairman.

The local chapter has also received instructions for persons who are willing to knit for the soldiers. It is earnestly desired that every Illinois soldier who goes abroad should have knitted equipment including a sleeveless sweater, a muffler, a pair of wristlets of khaki color and three pairs of all wool socks. The Red Cross shop at the headquarters, 231 West State street, has printed instructions for all those who are willing to take part in this patriotic work. Copies can be secured there and any other desired information about the knitting will also be given. The knitting instructions are as follows:

Knitted Socks
Cast on 72 stitches, making 24 on each needle.

The top or cuff of the sock should be ribbed by knitting 2 stitches plain and 2 purled. Knit the cuff 4 inches deep, then knit plain 8 inches.

Divide for the heel, leaving 2 stitches more on the heel side. Knit over plain, slipping the first stitch, and pull back until 2 or 2 1/2 inches are knitted for the heel.

To turn the heel knit to the middle, then knit 3 additional stitches, then 2 together and 1 plain. Turn and purl back, slipping always the first stitch, until 7 or 8 stitches are purled. Purl 2 together and 1 plain, turn and knit over again plain, slipping the first stitch. At the end of the needle always knit the stitch which stands on the row above with the one lower, and 1 more plain, before turning. This turns the heel and when all the stitches are even on one needle, take up the stitches at the side of the heel. Knit around once then where the side joins the front, narrow 8 times with one plain row between.

Knit the foot within 2 1/2 inches of the length desired (sock should be 11 1/2 or 12 inches in length) then knit 5 stitches plain 2 together, 5 plain and so on around the 3 needles. Knit 6 rows plain. Knit 4 plain, 2 together, 4 plain once around. Knit 5 times around plain. Knit 3 plain, 2 together, 3 plain, 2 together, once around. Knit 4 times around plain. Narrow again by knitting 2 plain, 2 together, 2 around. Knit 3 times around.

Narrow again, knitting 1 plain and 2 together. Knit 2 times around. Narrow until only a small number of stitches is left, and then draw up with a darning needle and finish smooth on the wrong side of the sock.

If No. 12 needles are used, one pair of socks can easily be made from one skein of yarn.

Sleeveless Jackets
No. 5—Celluloid needles. Two hanks knitting worsted, gray or khaki. Cast on 80 stitches loosely. Knit 2, purl 12 for 4 inches or about 30 rows (15 ribs). Knit plain until work measures 23 inches. Next row 28 stitches, knit and bind off loosely next 24 stitches and on the remaining 28 stitches knit 6 ribs (12 rows) back and forth from left shoulder. The last row will bring yarn to neck side. Break off, beginning at neck, knit 6 ribs on stitches reserved for right shoulder, cast on 24 stitches opposite those bound off for neck and knit 28 stitches on left shoulder, when all 80 stitches will again be on needle. Knit plain for 19 inches. Purl 2, knit 2 for 4 inches. Bind off loosely, sew up sides and leave 9 inches open for armholes.

Don'ts for the Knitters of Socks
Don't cast on tightly. An otherwise well-knitted sock may become useless by this tight cord at the top. Don't knot your wool. Join it by splicing the ends or leave two or three inches of each end and darn back carefully.

Don't make a heel with a seam on the sole.

Remember a man may not have a chance to change his socks for many days, and a lump or knot brings a blister. If the blister breaks blood poisoning may set in and result in the loss of a foot or even a life. We cannot afford to lose our men through negligence or ignorance.

Don't use black, dark or bright colors. There is again a danger of poisoning.

Don't use needles too fine for the wool. The knitting should be elastic; if too tightly knitted the sock becomes hard and boardlike in use.

Don't make a foot less than 11 inches long.

Directions for Making "Hospital Socks"

Cast on 76 stitches. Knit 2, purl 2. Continue doing this until the sock is 22 inches long. Then it is ready for narrowing off, at there are no more purled stitches.

When sock is nearly long enough it is a wise precaution to unwind the ball of yarn and measure off 14 1/2 yards, putting the rest of it into the sock. Knit once around plain and follow directions for knitting toe of sock.

No. 3 amber needle.

Wristlet

URGES ECONOMY IN USE OF FOODSTUFFS

G. I. Christie in Address Before Iowa Bankers Says This Is Time for America to Correct Fault of Wastefulness—Surplus of Fruit and Vegetables Should be Utilized.

Des Moines, Ia., June 15.—"This is the time for America to correct her unpardonable fault of wastefulness and extravagance," said G. I. Christie, superintendent of the Agricultural Extension Department of Purdue University in an address here today before the Iowa Bankers' Association. Prof. Christie said that the annual "food waste in American households is estimated at $700,000,000." His subject was "The New Agriculture as Related to Food Production and Conservation," and he spoke, in part, as follows:

"In his recent appeal to the people, President Wilson stated that every housewife who practices strict economy puts herself in the ranks of those who serve the nation. Let every man and every woman assume the duty of careful, prudent use and expenditure as a public duty, as a dictate of patriotism which no one can now expect ever to be excused or forgiven for ignoring.

"This appeal is made directly in the interests of more economical use of food stuffs and limited expenditures for them. The appeal is to rich and poor alike. Well-to-do families should exercise great care in the amount of food purchased in order that larger supplies may be available for the armies and the starving nations of Europe. The poor are called upon to buy wisely and economically in order that they may secure the best possible food for the money expended.

"Plain, wholesome and nutritious food will be found both economical and healthful. Home makers can do much to reduce expenditures by limiting their demands upon the grocer and the merchant. The unusual demand of women has resulted in the building up of a large, complex and most expensive delivery system. The use of the telephone and the demand that deliveries be made several times a day means that grocers and merchants must maintain a number of delivery conveyances.

"In one little town there are three grocery stores, standing almost side by side and which have four delivery trucks. It would be easy for two of these trucks to deliver all goods from all of the stores. The demands of the consumer will decide whether this system is to be continued or reduced.

"Preservation of food will mean much in saving the food supply. Vegetables and fruit can be preserved thru drying and canning at a time when they can be had in largest quantities and at the lowest prices. By saving from the gardens and the orchards large amounts of these products the home will have its own supply for most of the year which will reduce the demand on the surplus of the farm.

"Proper storage is a factor in the handling of food. Many homes and flat buildings are not equipped with suitable storage places for vegetables and fruits which should be stored in cool, dark place. Some arrangements should be made for the handling of these materials. It may be desirable in many communities to arrange some special storage plant.

"Eliminating waste thru the use of large quantities of fruit and vegetables which may be allowed to rot on the ground is a most important work. Many farmers will have fruit and vegetables in small quantities which they cannot afford to pick, pack and deliver with any reasonable profit. On the other hand, people from the towns and country with suitable conveyances can reach these districts and get the products at small cost. Some organized effort should be made in every community to care for this surplus."

The Evening Line-Up

Both children and grown-ups, with coughs and colds, are all the better for a dose of Foley's Honey and Tar at bed time. It wards off croup, stops tickling throat, and hacking coughs, and makes an otherwise feverish, sleepless night of coughing and distress, a quiet and restful one.

BROWNVILLE, TEXAS, Mr. W. S. Baker, writes: "My wife would not think of using any other cough medicine, as Foley's Honey and Tar is certain to bring quick relief. It is especially effective in cases of bad coughs, and we give it to our children and recommend it as a safe remedy, for it contains no opiates."

The Bankers defeated the Post-evening by a score of 10 to 6. The Bankers made two runs in the first held them safe the remainder of the

THREE EYE LEAGUE
WILL FINISH SEASON

Club Owners Vote to Go Thru With Schedule—Alton Will Retain Franchise and Bloomington Will Be Strengthened.

Chicago, June 15.—After receiving assurance that Alton would retain its franchise and the financial condition of the Bloomington club would be strengthened, club owners of the Three Eye League, in special session here today voted to go thru with the season. President Kearney was empowered to shorten the schedule or suspend it if such action is made necessary because of the war or a continuation of unfavorable weather. The plan to end the season after Fourth of July games was dropped.

Joseph B. Steck, head of the citizen's committee which will take over the Alton franchise, reported over the long distance telephone tonight that $5,000 would be raised by tomorrow to settle the club's indebtedness.

The suggestion for a concerted suspension of all minor leagues operating below Class A, after the Fourth of July was favorably received by some organizations and opposed by others.

MODERN WOODMEN
REGAINS LOSSES

Chicago, Ill., June 15.—Delegates from many states are arriving in Chicago to attend the meeting of the head camp Modern Woodmen of America. The meeting will be attended by 461 delegates, representing a total membership of nearly 1-000,000. The matter of rate readjustments, which has proved a disturbance factor in the society in the past, will not be brought up at the meeting of the head camp, as under the laws of the order the matter of rates is left to referendum. The reports of the officers will show that the order has practically regained the 300,000 lost members lost by the rate adjustment of three years ago. Head Consul A. R. Talbot, of Lincoln, Nebraska, is assured of re-election at the meeting.

RECEIVES FORMAL NOTICE OF KING'S ABDICATION

WASHINGTON, June 14.—Formal notice of the abdication of King Constantine and the accession of Prince Alexander reached the Greek legation here today in a cablegram announced in this statement:

The prime minister of Greece communicated today to the Greek legation that his majesty, King Constantine, yielding to a supreme political necessity in consequence of measures taken by three of the great powers is departing from Greece accompanied by the queen and crown prince leaving on the throne Prince Alexander. The new king has taken the oath in accordance with the constitution. The pain of the Greek people resulting from their separation from their sovereign is beyond description.

James William Samples, 73 years old, of Martinsburg, W. Va., completes the dream of a lifetime with his graduation this month from Marshall College. Not a member of the class of 1917 is more buoyant or triumphant over a sheepskin than
he. One of a family of ten children,
Mr. Samples had to begin early shifting for himself, and only four years ago found himself in a financial position to secure the college education
he had coveted all his life.

Dr. George E. Vincent, the new head of the Rockefeller Foundation, will bid adieu tomorrow to the aluni of the University of Minnesota, of which he has been president since 1911, at a farewell dinner at Minneapolis. Dr. Cyrus Northrop, president emeritus of the university, and Dr. William W. Folwell, its first president, and two of the most distinguished educators of the Middle West, will be present to bid Dr. Vincent godspeed. So much, by the way, has the war drawn from the student rank of Minnesota, that it is a common saying in Minneapolis that Dr. Marion Lefroy Burton, the new president, and former president of Smith College, is only "coming to another college of girls."

Two prominent Canadians, one a noted statesman, the other an educator and writer of renown, will cross the border into Uncle Sam's land this week to assist in American educational festivities. Williston Seminary, Easthampton, Mass., which celebrates its diamond jubilee June 14 to 18, will have as the chief speaker:
at the event Sir Herbert Ames of Montreal, an alumnus of both Williston and Amherst College, who was knights during the present war for his services in raising large relief funds for the dependents of Canadian troops. At the 145th commencement at Brown University, Providence, beginning June 17, the principal speakers will be former Secretary of War Lindley M. Garrison, and Prof. Stephen Leacock, head of the Department of Political Economy of McGill University, Montreal, and well known as a writer and humorist.

Commencement Week at Harvard beginning next Sunday, will be marked by several notable features aside from the atmosphere of patriotism which will be given it by the present military activities of the oldest American university. This year marks the one hundredth anniversary of the Harvard Law School, and the centennial is to be celebrated with imposing ceremonies during Commencement Week, June 19 and 20. Among the speakers will be Henry L. Stimson, Secretary of War
under President Taft, and Justice Oliver Wendell Holmes of the United States Supreme Court, both alumni of the school. Another notable visitor to Fair Harvard will be Franklin D.
Roosevelt, Assistant Secretary of the Navy, Harvard graduate and former president of the Crimson, who at the exercises on June 21, at the award of diplomas and honorary degrees, will receive the honorary degree of Master of Arts. Secretary Roosevelt graduated in 1904, 24 years after his famous relative got his A. B. degree from Harvard.

Cleveland, June.—Failing to arrange a deal for Sam Crawford, the veteran outfielder with the Detroit Americans, James C. Dunn, president of the Cleveland club, is on the hunt for a hard hitting substitute outfielder whose name he refused to divulge.
Dunn expects the deal will be completed within ten days.

The management of the Cleveland club wanted Crawford, but President Navin of the Detroit club would not accept the terms. Crawford is receiving $7,500 as a pinch hitter.
Navin, it is understood, has no intention of disposing of Crawford.

Pitcher Schupp of the Giants continues to baffle National league batsmen just as he did the latter part of last season.

International Corn Planters
Have a Habit of Pleasing

If your neighbor owns an International corn planter, you don't have to be told that he is satisfied. You know it, and we know it. The International corn planter satisfies because it is simple and because it plants corn the way you want it planted. A strong feature is the adjustable runner frame, keeping the runners even and the hoppers level, no matter what the height or speed of your team. This mean accurate dropping and even checking instead of zig zag. It is a very convenient planter under all conditions.

The International is the corn planter that deserves to be looked over by every farmer who wants to get the most out of his cornfields. It wastes neither seed nor ground, it handles easily, and it lasts as long as any farmer could ask.

Come in the first time it is convenient and study an International planter. Made in five styles—own the style that suits you.

WHAT PROPOSED VAST ARMY REALLY MEANS

Some Interesting Comparisons are Drawn, Using Estimated Number of 1,500,000 as Basis of Calculation—Would Cover Thirty-eight Square Miles.

Washington, D. C., June 15.—Estimates of the probable size of the United States army that will be raised for the present war range from 1,000,000 to 2,000,000 men. By splitting the difference between these two estimates the sum of 1,500,000 men may be used as a basis of calculation. Now what does a army of 1,500,000 men really mean?

Such an army would embrace nearly five times as many American soldiers as were needed to win the war of independence. It would equal nearly three times the total number of United States troops engaged in the War of 1812 and would exceed by nearly 1,250,000 the number of United States soldiers who took part in the war with Spain.

What extent of ground would such an army cover? Just 1050 miles. This is 150 miles, roughly, greater than the distance between
New York and Chicago. Marching in fours, in the regular military alignment, this vast army, with horses and mules, cannon and escort weapons, pontoons and hospital trains, would stretch fully a third of the way across the United States.

If they kept passing day and night marching all 24 hours, they would take seventeen and one-half days to pass any one point. The regular military march for seasoned troops is fifteen miles a day.

It would take this army of 1,500,
000 men just seventy days to deploy that is, to maneuver into line, or for the troops to reach the front.
Figured according to army tables,
such a body of troops would require 511,500 animals and 61,350 vehicles, including guns. If they made one great camp it would cover 23,947 acres, or thirty-eight square miles.

To maintain this army would require several million dollars a day.
In less than a week the pay of the troops would buy the Woolworth building, one of the costliest structures in the world.
At $6 a head it would cost $9,000,
000 just to give each man a service uniform. Shoes would cost an additional $6,000,000 or $7,000,000, to say nothing of blankets, overcoat, hat, rifle, or any other of the multifarious equipment of the soldier of today.

These soldiers would eat 6,750, 000 pounds of food a day. Their animals would consume almost as much fodder—6,138,000 pounds of hay and grain. It would require 25,000 railway cars to transport the 1,500, 000 men, or, if it were one gigantic car, it would be seventy miles long.
An army wagon can carry 2,765 pounds. Now, an army wagon loaded at least ten days' rations—which means 64,130 wagon loads.

The army would require 315,000,
000 cartridges a day, weighing 26,
000,000 pounds—three times heavier than the vast dome of the capitol in Washington.

It is estimated in the present war that Germany, France and Russia each has kept up to date 5,000,000 men under arms with the forces of England, Italy and Austria-Hungary ranging between 3,000,000 and 4, 000,000 each. These figures, totaling many times the 1,500,000 used as a basis for calculations, afford an idea of the stupendous scale on which the great war is conducted.

JUDGE HAND GRANTS PRELIMINARY ORDER

NEW YORK, June 14.—United States Judge Augustus N. Hand has granted a preliminary injunction against Allen E. Beale, of the corporation of that name, publishers of the Dow Building reports, restrain-ing him and his associates from supplying customers with news obtained from the Dodge reports.

The F. W. Dodge company complained to the court that the defendants were wrongfully appropriating the information furnished to the subscribers of the Dodge reports.
Speaking of the case, Henry A.
Abbott of Beale, Abbott and Morgan, who represent the Dodge company, said:

"This decision is directly in line with the recent decision of the same court restraining the International News Service from appropriating information furnished by the Associated Press and is of importance to all publishers interested in protecting property rights in news."

INVITE SMITS TO JOIN WAR COUNCIL
London, June 14.—The newspapers say that General Smuts, the celebrated Boer leader, has been invited to join the war cabinet. Such a step was mooted weeks ago and it is known that the government is anxious to retain the South African services here, having the highest opinion of his political and military ability.

GENERAL BUSINESS STRONGER AND IMPROVED

Quotations Close Steady 2 to 4 Cents
Net Lower—Corn and Oats Make Gains.

Chicago, June 15.—Estimates that the domestic production of wheat for 1917 will be about 2,000,000 bushels in excess of the government June figures did a good deal today to bring about the close in the wheat market. The quotations closed steady 2 to 4 cents net lower with July at $2.25 and Sept at

WOMEN IN THE NEWS

Mary Pickford, the famous little film star, has taken $100,000 Liberty Loan Bonds—ten times the amount, by the way, subscribed by President Wilson. There seems to be no doubt as to "Our Mary" having become a thoro American in spite of her having been born in Toronto, Canada, of Irish parents, and that not so very long ago.

Baroness Moncheur, wife of Baron Moncheur of Belgium, who will head the Belgian mission soon coming to the United States is an American woman, daughter of General Powell Clayton, once United States Minister to Mexico. The baron was formerly Belgian Minister to Washington, and his wife was one of the most prominent hostesses of the national capital.

The school of Oral Hygiene at Columbia University graduates ninety-six young women this month who September next will enter the service of the City of New York as dental hygienists. Their duty will be to inspect the teeth of all school children regularly, to clean such teeth when necessary and to send such children to dentists whose teeth demand additional care. This remarkable class of girl teeth inspectors is the first one sent out by the school, established a year ago for this special purpose.

Americans who have been admiring Miss Phyllis Bottome's talent and watching her remarkable rise to fame as a short story writer and novelist, will hear with pleasure that this brilliant young woman is half American in spite of her residence abroad. Her father was an American, whose mother was a well known religious teacher in New York. Miss Bottome's mother was English. The writer herself says she is a thoro cosmopolitan, having lived in America, France, Italy and Switzerland, besides England. She was living in Paris at the outbreak of the war, which has inspired some of her notable work.

Miss Elizabeth Harrison, daughter of the late Benjamin Harrison, President of the United States from 1889 to 1893, is drill sergeant for the girl students of New York University, where she is herself studying for the bar. Miss Harrison, who is a charming girl of twenty, has been one of the chief workers in the movement to teach women the elements of war, in which so many women of importance in the social and financial world have taken a hand. At the university she at once took her place as a leader in the organization of the girls for military work, as becomes a great granddaughter of Old Tippecanoe—William Henry Harrison, ninth President of the United States and hero of the Western frontier. She is the daughter of President Harrison's second wife, Mrs. Mary Scott Lord Harrison, to whom he was married in 1836, three years after his leaving the White House.

Lord Northcliffe, the famous British journalist who succeeds Arthur J. Balfour as head of the British war mission to the United States, likes to pay tribute to his "plucky little Irish mother" and the part she played in his early life and the example she gave him. His father, Alfred Harmsworth, whose name he bears, was a barrister who upon his death left his wife and six children practically penniless. The mother, formerly Miss Geraldine Mary Maffett, of Dublin, faced the situation with true Irish pluck, and succeeded in keeping the family together and giving them an education. Alfred, the eldest, was the first to break away to help his mother, and his rise in the newspaper world of London has been so stupendous that he has been called an "Aladdin". Another son of the "plucky little Irish mother" has also risen to fame and fortune since the difficult days when she worked hard to keep her little family together. This is Sydney Harmsworth, Baron Rothermere, a younger brother of Lord Northcliffe, and like him a journalist of world influence and many times a millionaire.

RAILROAD TO ADOPT WAR SAVING METHODS

C. M. & St. P. Offers Suggestions to Superintendents as to How Best to Aid Government in Effort to Increase Transportation Units—Must Accomplish More with Present Facilities.

Chicago, June 14.—The Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railway has sent a letter to each of its superintendents offering suggestions as to how best to aid the government in its efforts to increase the supply of transportation units with existing labor, forces of skilled and unskilled labor, and supplies of fuel and equipment which cannot be increased because the demand for all these far exceed the supply. The letter says, in part:

"We are as patriotic as any other body of good citizens, and the opportunity is welcomed to serve the nation and accomplish results by conserving fuel supply and in getting more efficient use and increased mileage out of locomotives and cars that are available.

"There are not sufficient men, cars, engines or other facilities in the country to move the additional traffic created by the war.

"It is important then that greater determination be made to accomplish more with the facilities that are now in service. Superintendents must make use of every facility at their command to bring about better loading and handling of cars. Training masters, roadmasters, trainmen and agents who travel over a division must have knowledge of what is required in the use of cars and work with the shipper and the consignee to accomplish results.

"Train dispatchers, yardmen and carmen must bring about an improvement in prompt handling of cars at terminals, and superintendents should select a committee to receive and offer suggestions to make improvements as there must be no let-up on the part of the railway or the public during the war. Those responsible for releasing equipment loaded with company freight must not permit of any delay. A car should not be used for moving company freight when the shipment can be made in a way car.

"President Wilson has said: 'Let me say that the railways are the arteries of the nation's life and that upon them rests the immense responsibility of seeing to it that those arteries suffer no obstruction of any kind, no inefficiency or slackened power.'

If these suggestions are put into practice the efficiency and support of the company cannot be questioned by the special committee on National Defense."

MAN OWNS ENTIRE TOWN.

Fargo, N. D., June 15.—There is no question as to who is the leading citizen of Absaraka, N. D., inasmuch as G. W. Humphrey owns the city, whole and entire, he can lay claim to that distinction without fear of dispute.

Humphrey formerly lived at Pingree, N. D. He recently visited in Absaraka. He liked the place so much that he offered to trade his farm for the thriving village. The offer was accepted and Humphrey transferred a section of land near Pingree to owners of Absaraka property and received in exchange title to everything on the townsite. This includes a lumber yard, elevator, implement and hardware store, blacksmith shop, coal shed, dwellings and five and one-half acres of townsite.

Absaraka is an old established town in Cass county of which Fargo is the county seat.

TOWN IS BUILT ON NEW ARMY TRAINING FIELD

Where Student Aviators From University of Illinois Will Receive Instruction in Flying—Fifty-nine buildings to be put up in Record Time.

Rantoul, Ill., June 15.—The latest approach to "a town sprung up over night" is being constructed on the new army aviation training field here. More than 1,200 men, working Sundays and holidays, are putting up fifty-nine buildings and by July 20 it is expected that the population of this town will have increased from 1,590 to about 6,000.

The site at Rantoul is one of the eight selected for training men seeking commissions in the reserve corps of the aviation section of the army. The stations at Chicago and Lincoln, L. I., have been in operation for several weeks and others in the central department of the army are being rushed to completion at Dayton, O., and Detroit, Mich.

The local station is about 15 miles north of Urbana where, at the University of Illinois, most of the student aviators who will be "turned loose" here, are to receive their theoretical training. The site was selected May 21, and the following day the contract was let to a firm at Champaign, Ill., for the construction of fifty-three buildings on the 640 acre tract. Last week six more hangars were added to the original number, making fifty-nine to be ready for use July 20. The contractors have been delayed in their work by a shortage of material but already 115 carloads have been used and there are forty carloads of lumber in transit. It is estimated that more than 2,500,000 feet of lumber and 40 tons of nails will be used. All lumber is being shipped from southern points. The Kankakee & Urbana Traction Company has built a spur into the field and cars are being switched from the Illinois Central railroad to the traction line.

Buildings are being erected along the entire length of the north side of the field, as follows:

Eighteen hangars, 66x120.
Ten officers' quarters, 24x134.
One commanding officers' residence, 25x31.
One officers' club, 40x78.
One hospital, 78x118.
Six mess halls, 129x118.
Six cantonments or barracks, 20x22.

One power house, 35x37.
One gymnasium.
Two latrines, 14x36.
One guard house, 20x50.
One school house, 96x200.
One aero supplies, 66x125.
One administration building, 40x50.

One "dope" house, 35x62, (gasoline storage).
One blacksmith shop, 26x60.
One garage, 66x201.
One machine shop, 66x125.
One post exchange, 40x62.
One Y. M. C. A. building.

Every building will be strictly modern, thoroughly equipped and will be heated from a central station. Electricity and water will come from the local municipal plants.

The field which is a mile square formerly had three sets of up-to-date farm improvements on it, but all are being torn down or moved off and the trees, shrubbery, hedges and fences are being pulled. A gang of men with teams is leveling the tract and when completed it will be as flat as it is possible to make it and will be sown to grass.

The work is all under the supervision of Captain A. J. Deacon and he is assisted by a corp of clerks.

Students in the aviation corps will receive two months' training at the University of Illinois and then will be sent to the Chicago or Rantoul fields for actual work. To every student engaged in flying there will be five carpenters and mechanics, who will be kept busy keeping the machines in running condition.

The people of Rantoul are just beginning to realize the effect the field will have upon the life of the village. Already business in every line has increased. Property is being bought and sold at big figures; new businesses are being started, and there is activity on all sides. The town expects to entertain hundreds of visitors daily, besides tripling its population.

Augusta Israel was among Friday visitors in the city yesterday from Murrayville.

If You Suffer From Catarrh

don't make the fatal mistake of regarding it as a trifling matter. Authorities agree that Catarrh is an infection of the blood. Consequently, sprays, salves and lotions can afford only temporary relief, because they do not reach the source of the disease—the blood. When you depend on these temporary remedies alone your case is likely to grow steadily worse until it becomes chronic and possibly affects the lungs.

But even if the infection does not go this far, the continuous dripping of mucous in the throat, the constant spitting and hawking and evil odor of the breath will not only cause misery to you, but will make your presence obnoxious to others. S. S. S., which has been the standard blood medicine for fifty years, will relieve your catarrh, because it will purify your blood and relieve it of the accumulated poisons. S. S. S. contains no mineral or habit-forming drugs. S. S. S. is on sale at all druggists and the advice of our medical department is at your disposal, free of charge.
